

The September sheet

One thing at a time, in the right order. You don't need more discipline: you need fewer things starting at the same time. Consistency over perfection.

1

WEEKS 1 AND 2

Bedtime only

One fixed time, every day, weekends included, sleepy or not. If after 20 minutes in bed you haven't fallen asleep, get out of bed, go to another room with low light, and come back when your body gives the signal. It's not insomnia getting worse: it's the body relearning. My time: _____

2

FROM WEEK 3

Add morning light

10 to 20 minutes outside, within the first 60 minutes of your day, no sunglasses. It doesn't need sun: it needs sky. Coffee on the balcony counts, walking the kids to school counts, parking two blocks early counts.

3

FROM WEEK 5

One thing at a time

If you choose just one: 10 to 15 minutes of walking after your main meals. If food feels non-negotiable this week, focus only on breakfast: real protein, within the first hour after waking. Everything else can wait three weeks.

The log (just two ticks a day)

	MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI	SAT	SUN
Week 1	☐ ☐	☐ ☐	☐ ☐	☐ ☐	☐ ☐	☐ ☐	☐ ☐
Week 2	☐ ☐	☐ ☐	☐ ☐	☐ ☐	☐ ☐	☐ ☐	☐ ☐
Week 3	☐ ☐	☐ ☐	☐ ☐	☐ ☐	☐ ☐	☐ ☐	☐ ☐
Week 4	☐ ☐	☐ ☐	☐ ☐	☐ ☐	☐ ☐	☐ ☐	☐ ☐

1st tick: I went to bed at my time · 2nd tick: I got morning light. No averages, no guilt: you count and you start again.

Three sentences to keep at hand

WHEN SOMEONE SAYS YOU SHOULD BE RESTED BY NOW

"I did go on holiday, yes. Holidays suspend tiredness, they don't correct it."

WHEN YOU NEED TO TAKE LOAD OFF

"I need you to take [one concrete thing] this week. Not forever, just until this stabilises."

IF YOU BRING THIS TO A CONSULTATION

"I've had these symptoms for [time]. Is there a marker worth testing that isn't on this panel?"
